The food that I'm eating is suddenly tasteless
I know I'm alone now
I know what it tastes like

So break me to small parts that go in small doses but spare some for spare parts there might be some good ones like you might make a dollar I'm inside your mouth now behind your tonsils, peeking over your molars you're talking to her now you've eaten something minty and you're making that face that I like and you're going in in for the kill kill for the killer kiss kiss for the kiss kiss

I need your money it will help me
I need your car and I need your love I need your money it'll help me
I need your car and I need your love so won't you help a brother out won't you help a brother out won't you help a brother out out out out out...

just break me to small parts let go in small doses and spare some for spare parts you might make a dollar dollar...
won't you help a brother out out out out out...

and spare some for spare parts
