Don't Forget to Smell the Roses
Reisa L. Gerber

Did you stop to smell the roses on the happy
Side of life?
Do you appreciate the wonders of the world?
Do you celebrate the earth
With joyous sounds of mirth?
As its warm and fragrant beauty is unfurled.

Chorus:
Don't forget to smell the roses on the way-ay-ay-
The cost of nature is not much to pay.
There's beauty in this world in which we live,
There's precious little else that's free to give.

Fragrant beauty that is mine to love
The glowing sun will shine above
And bless us with the colors of the day
I bestow upon you pleasure of this golden,
Buried treasure,
Don't forget to smell the roses on the way.

Chorus:

Can you feel the gentle breezes
of nature as she teases
The flowers with her windy morning greeting?
The yellow sun, she rises
Bringing warm and sweet surprises,
Nature's pulse is beating for the world.
