Except By Law

I can't make you rise to the occasion,
I can't make you walk in my door
I can't make you drink my sweet wine,
Yeah
I can't make you, except by law.
I wanted it the way I wanted it to be.
I wanted it the way it feels right for me.
But I can't make you stay with me,
No
I can't make you stay with me.
I can't make you rise to the occasion,
I can't make you walk in my door, yeah,
I can't make you drink my sweet wine,
I can't make you except by law.
