I Hang Out a Shingle

It's getting to the point in time
Where it's high time,
I became a wife
Life is too lonely for me-
Tears in my eyes make me cry

Refrain:

So I hang out a shingle, shingles,
It says that I'm single, singles,
For the day when he brings me
A ring around my finger,
So I hang out a shingle, shingles,
It says "Reisa's single", singles,
For the day when he brings me
His happy ever after

Settling down for life together,
Full of love and happiness,
A little boy upon my lap,
A little girl upon my knees,
And kisses that never end-

Refrain:
