I know enough about my baby,
To make her YELLOW!
But if the light turns RED, they make you stop
(So get "hit")
Inside, there's a kingdom for me
In that realm
And I always say "hello" to you-
Even though you know i caught your crime!
I was "naked" with my hand
In the chocolate chips
In the bottom of that cookie jar!
Put it in, take it out, put it in, take it out,
With a trace of a five o'clock shadow of Doubt-
And I'll always wonder why
You caught my line,
It was written for you in a snatch of our time-
Oooooops! A little catch in the outfield-
Do you dee-de-dee-dee-dee-dee
Pop fly!
Everybdy catch the monkey, baby
Pop fly!
Everybody catch the monkey,
Pop fly!
Everybody catch the monkey
Pop fly!
He said, "Lady, give me one good reason why
Throw a rock at my window
From your place in the sky
Everybody catch the monkey,
Pop fly!
He said, "Lady, give me one good reason why
