I love to get up in the morning so early
I love to rise and shine-
You tell me your preference, man on the moon,
And I will tell you mine!

I love to arise with the daybreak
Each morning,
I love to get up at dawn,
I jog on the track, then I come on back,
To sit and have breakfast with you!

Well, watch it, said, whoa,
'cause prety soon, I'm gonna change my tune!
Instead of getting up with the sun,
I aint gonna stir until noon!

I love to get up in the morning so early,
I love to rise and shine!
So you tell me your preference,
Man on the moon,
And I will tell mine!

Thakyou-
