It Must Be

She loves me
like the wind hugs the treetops
Through leaves and change
To another time-
Little drops of Lucifer, fly out from under the skin,
Only to win with love.

Chorus: Her innocent devotion to me
I know we'll see
It Must Be, It Must Be....

I want so bad to love her with the heart
That she deserves
I start to cry, I don't know why-
I do not know the words.
She only wants to love me,
Wants to be there when I call-
She says "Anytime you need me, honey...
Almost anytime at all.
