Love Lost

I have a love lost
I'm still in love with my last boyfriend
But he wasn't good to me-
I took care of his children,
Took them to school-
Dressed them up in beautiful clothes...
Everyday of the week,
And only God knows
Why he was so cruel to me.
He was totally straight, or so people think-
But he would come home at night,
Maybe smoke a joint or have a drink-
I made gourmet dinners every night,
And I was using, just to spite,
To keep it together
To cope with my darkest blues
And my blackest night-
My figure was perfect, my clothes petite,
It was so nice to be elite.
We lived in Queens, in Ozone Park,
One of the boroughs in the city of New York-
I'll never get over the emotional scars.
It is years since I've seen him,
And I miss him so,
And when I meet Mister Right,
Maybe three times down the road,
We'll stay together, him and me,
A Heartbeat away from a thrill,
That I thought was gone.

Audrey and Reisa will co-write this album.
Thankyou.
Love Lost

I have a love lost,
I'm still in love with my last boyfriend.
But he wasn't good to me-
I took care of his children,
Took them to school,
Dressed them up in beautiful clothes,

Every day,
And only G-d knows,
Why he was so cruel to me.

Refrain:

He was totally straight,
Or so people think,
But he came home at night,
And he smoked a joint or had a drink.

I was using, too, just to spite,
To keep my act together, and to cope,
With the darkest blue and the black of night.
My figure was perfect, my clothes petite,
But I'll never get over
The emotional scars he left with me...

Refrain:

It is years since I've seen him,
I miss him so,
And when I meet Mister Right,
Down the road,
We'll stay together, him and me,
A heartbeat away from a thrill-
I thought was gone, and maybe too late.

Thankyou.
