His Kiss

The pretty women like talking trust and love-
In a voice that lwaves me gasping for breath-
It left me staggering and empty
For my poverty stricken wealth
He said, "There were many men who wold have given anything, to sit there with you!"

Refrain: He said, "Do I have to hear my name called,
If I wasn't afraid to see you naked?
I do see myself in the mirror everyday.
I sleep at night
But I'll tell you this-
Aint no stinkin' man
Worth nothin', honey,
Ever, ever, ever gonna give Me
His kiss, give me his kiss.

She said, "Everytime I do something, you Order me around
I guess I'll have to see you back at The O.K. Coral
Maybe I should stay away
Until you want me to go down
With you
I wish I didn't have to tell you
And ruin your pride
But sometimes, you're a heavy load
To take.
