Proof of the Pudding

You keep on telling them "Hey! I can handle it!"
Still they say that you can't hold a candle!
You said, you would "Stop it!"
If you could stop!
And if you could stop, I wish you would stop it.
Your jealousy is a fruitless emotion,
And still you need proof of your sister's devotion
I'll know and you'll know,
But I aint gonna say nothing,
Let's put a new check by every good done thing!
The trust is gone, but our love's holding on,
honey,
Let's see the proof of the pudding,
Let's see the proof of the pudding.
I've got to see you in heaven, girl
Because you'll even fool G-d!
Honey, sometimes you belong to hell...
And we both know it very well.

I've got to see you in heaven, girl,
Because you even fooled G-d
Wear that halo around yourhead.
"Devil made me do that!" you said.

Yes, I've got to see you in heaven, girl,
Because you even foooled G-d
Firey red at the stake you'll burn!
Every sinner will take his turn...

Friends, friends, friends....
Friends, friends, friends...
