Reality
Reisa L. Gerber

Reality, come away with me
We'll build an empire blue
We'll feel the pain, the sun and the rain,
And we'll live a life that's true
Oh, the rose is red, the sky is blue,
The grass is freshly mown
Until you came, there were no names,
But now I'm not alone

Chorus:
And I know that you love someone else
And your life is not for me
But I can see you, I can free you,
For I am purged and clean.

When the need for someone close and dear arises in my soul
When the jealousy takes ahold of me,
I must try to take control
Oh, somewhere in time, you caught my crime
I left your house a mess
Oh your presence says "There's someone else"
And I wish you both success.

Chorus:
