Susie (Your Love keeps me Warm)

Darlin', last time I told you "I love you",
I guess I didn't hear you then,
But you know I love you,
You know I do,
And I just try to listen,
But sometimes I can't.
I was caught by the lightening,
Thunder and Storm,
But you know your love keeps me warm,
You know, your love keeps me warm.

Somebody Was Waiting

Somebody was waiting for you to appear.
No show, don't go,
Why weren't you there?
Somebody was hoping that you would make
The scene....
Time to, no you..
Where have you been?

When you say that you'll appear,
It behooves you to be there
When you promise to commit,
Other people trust in it..
And when you let them down,
They don't believe you anymore.

You don't hear, you don't show anyway....
Thankyou.
