Your Love Feels for Two of Us

He asked me "What do you have to live for?"
He asked me, "What is your reason?"
Well, I cannot do it, and you may see through it,
But your love has given me reason to live.

Refrain:
And I live, on and on,
And the purpose seems ludicrous,
"Crazy", they say,
But your love feels for two of us.

Seems like my life wasn't worth the living,
The pain and the tragedy followed me home-
Well, the tears they flowed freely,
My heart wasn't healing,
But your love has given me reason to live-

Refrain:

Night after lonely night,
I cried myself to sleep,
Hoping that someone would hear this sad song,
But the laughter was always there,
After the storm of tears,
Your love has given me reason to live-

Refrain:
