Alone, I'm dying slowly;
I've fought so long and I'm finally moving on.
Finding nothing here for me, hoping this is where it ends.
Needing something more to be, my vision's fading
quickly

Please save me, I've fallen down too far,
Betrayed by the world against me.
I'm losing the final fight tonight;
I'm not gonna say goodbye.

You know me, you've known that I'm not alive-
Much too weak to live but far too strong to die.
Don't wanna leave this world alone, need to end this suffering.
Give me one more chance to live, don't want to meet
my end tonight.

Please save me, I've fallen down too far,
Betrayed by the world against me.
I'm losing the final fight tonight;
I'm not gonna say goodbye.

Fought so long but this empty sky won't she'd it's light for me.
Been here before; I feel the calm before the coming storm.

Please save me, I've fallen down too far,
Betrayed by the world against me.
I'm losing the final fight tonight;
I'm not gonna say goodbye.
