How blessed are those
Blessed are those who walk with You
How blessed are those
Those whose hearts are always true.

Those who live in Your law
Whose hearts seek after Thee
How free their lives of sin
How blessed their purity!

O, how blessed are those
Blessed are those who walk with You
How blessed are those
Those whose hearts are always true.

Oh, that I had more strength
In obeying Your decrees
But I am trying, Lord
O God, do not forsake me!

But bless me, Lord
Bless me as my heart seeks You
And bless me, Lord
As I turn my life to You.

Turn to You...
