I'm never shy but this is different
I can't explain the way I'm feelin' tonight
I'm losin' control of my heart
Tell me what can I do to make you happy
Nothing I ever say seems to come out right
I'm losin' control of my heart

And I wish that I could be
Another better part of me
Can't hear what you're thinkin'
Maybe if I just let go
You'll open up your heart

But I can't read you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you
Your heart's defendin' I get left behind
Can't reach you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you
Your heart's protectin' I get left behind

Like you so much I'm actin' stupid
I can't play the game I'm all intense an' alive
Losin' control of my heart
I'm not supposed to be this nervous
I should play my hand all cool and calm, I can't breathe
I'm losin' control of my heart

And I wish that I could see
Another better parts of me
Feel this fire I'm feelin'
Then you see me in control
And baby then you know

But I can't read you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you
I can't read you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you

I wish that you could see
Better parts of me
Feel this fire I'm feelin'
And you see me in control
And baby then you'd know

But I can't read you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you
I can't read you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you

Can't read you
I wish I knew what's goin' through your mind
Can't touch you
I can't read you
Can't touch you

Can't read you
I wish I knew what's going through your mind
