can't believe that its over, baby
every bruise on my heart, you gave me see we tried but we'd fight
then we cried
now its over babe
its over babe

so its over babe
its over babe

When i met u i knew u would be the one for me 'cause looking at u had me feeling kinda crazy and what u asked i almost did it automatically but it was nothing compared to the joy u gave me although i know that what we had it wasnt perfect babe we fooled around, but see back then it didnt phase me i thought that stayin tryna change u would be worth it babe but now i see that tryna change u only changed me all these tears, and all of your lies all these years, and now we're saying goodbye

see we tried but we'd fight

now im thinking that i never should have dealt with you all the screamin and the yellin that we'd go through rainin late at night im sittin waitin up for you just to tell you that i hate who u turned into see aint no way im gonna sit and take this shit from you i'll never play another day of bein ur fool i wasted all my time on somthing that just wasnt true i should have known that i could never ever change you

see we tried but we'd fight then we cried
its over babe (over babe)

see we tried then we'd fight then we cried

i'll never forget what you did to me, so im gone im leaving, leaving baby
i'll never forgot what you did to me, so im gone
whenever, you see me, dont even speak i'll never forget what you did to me

every bruise on my heart you gave me (bye)

im leaving
