Iâ€™ve found a way a way to make you smile
Iâ€™ve found a way
a way to make you smile

I read bad poetry
into your machine.
I save your messages
just to hear your voice.
You always listen carefully to awkward rhymes.
You always say your name,
like I wouldnâ€™t know itâ€™s you,
at your most beautiful.

Iâ€™ve found a way a way to make you smile

Iâ€™ve found a way
a way to make you smile

At my most beautiful
I count your eyelashes, secretly.
With everyone whisper I love you.
I let you sleep.
I know your closed eye watching me,
listening.
I though I saw a smile.

Iâ€™ve found a way a way to make you smile
Iâ€™ve found a way
a way to make you smile
