Inside you feel so tired.
Your minds move too fast
until you're knocked back on the ground.
Feelings that linger around.

Summer here and the sun will find you.
Falling out with the world around you.
But you need not run away,
'cause everything's bound to change.

Chorus:

We could work this out or just let it go.
It's time to learn what we should know.
That's the problem with me,
see, there's a problem with me.
That's the problem, the problem with me.

So, now you're old
and the world has left you.
It's so sick, you see just where
they kept you down,
locked up in fear.

We can change it all from here
or simply let it disappear.

Repeat chorus.

Fade out 'til tomorrow.
You just keep standing there.
Reelin' will follow spinning in the air.

Repeat chorus.

It's all I wanted.
