Its easy to admit that were all so easily distracted
Why do I make it so complicated?
Ill never get back the time thats been wasted
Its like Ive seen this before

From across the room
I just wanna fade away
And be lost in this daze a while
Or maybe just tonight

Is there an explanation, a reason why its gotten to this pointno
So tell me how I should feel, cuz I cant think for myself
Staring at the TV, wondering to myself,
Is this it? Is this the way we are?

From across the room
I just wanna fade away
And be lost in this daze a while
Or maybe just tonight

Maybe just tonight

To be lost in a daze, if for only just one night

How quickly I lose the motivation
I swear that its not my fault
How quickly I lose the motivation
I swear that its not my fault

From across the room
I just wanna fade away
And be lost in this daze a while
Or maybe just tonight
