Here we go again
Nothing comes easy
But Im sick of tryin
Weve got nothing to lose
Then why is this so hard?
Cuz maybe Ive moved on
Maybe youve moved on
Maybe weve moved on

I know were doing what is right
I thought to myself late last night
I believed it when ya said:
Well knock em dead kid, everytime
Weekends just cant come soon enough
When I can just forget about
These thoughts that make the week so rough
If I just listened to myself

Here we go again
Theres no way to explain it
But round and round, yeah, here we go again

So what did you have to say?
A few words wont make it all okay
You had a chance, let it slip away
Leaving such a bitter taste
Til the weekend comes
Ill have to sit and wait
For a sign to show me what to do

Here we go again
Back to where we started
But its not too late
Here we go again
Back to where we started
Theres nothing to say now
Cuz maybe weve moved on

Here we go again
No way to explain it
But I wonder: will it ever end?

Here we go again
Back to where we started
But its not too late
Here we go again
Back to where we started
Theres nothing to say now
Maybe weve moved on
