(Written by Dave Scott)

I'm alive
I know how
Your gaze still pierces me
Right from within

Your lying
Has killed me
For once just tell the truth
Was love ever there?

(Chorus)
The morning sunrise never shows
The sadness kills because it knows
Tears never helped us
Helped us rise above

Was the sunrise ever there?
Did you ever truly care?
Now I'm screamin' out
Long Live Lost Love

I'm sure I
Don't want to
But I know you never did
Only as you can

But I love you
Forever
This broken heart will never mend
My pain and torment never end

(Chorus)

The morning sunrise was never there
And you never truly cared
And it's killin' me
Long Live Lost Love
