(Written By Rob Pettigrew)

I've spent all this time,
Just wondering why,
Why it had to be,
The way it seems to me.

I'm loosing sight,
But I'll hold on tight,
This roller coaster ride,
To the life that I behold.

[Chorus]

I'm watching my life unfold, the truth untold,
Staring down that open road, the truth untold,
I'm knocked out I'm stone cold, the truth untold,
I'm watching my life unfold, the truth untold.

The truth is out
There is no doubt
My life's reality
The way it's meant to be

[Chorus]

What am I waiting for my life is my own,
Mould it how I want it to be,
Make myself me
