I never felt like this before
Seeing you again only makes me sad
I remember the times when we
Were so in love and had everything
It makes me so sad
Time is meant to heal the pain I thought was gone
But seeing you again has made it carry on
Go before you break my heart once more
I know..
That's what youve come here for
Go before you say I love you the way
You did the day before you walked away from me
Looking back on the times we had
Things were beautiful then
But how quick they changed
One day you were so in love with me
Then the next.so suddenly
He came along
Time is meant to heal the pain I thought was gone
But, seeing you again has made it carry on
Go before you break my heart once more
I know..
That's what youve come here for
Go before you say I love you the way
You did the day before you walked away from me
Oehhoeh
Time is meant to heal the pain I thought was gone
But, seeing you again has made it carry on
Go before you break my heart once more
I know..
That's what youve come here for
Go before you say I love you the way
You did the day before you walked away from me
