Words in my head now I gotta think of a tune Make love to me and then ill sing you the blues And we can lay in bed all Sunday like we did the Sunday before
And when I leave here I know you'll be right there wanting me more

Cause you could go and id still be there walking around with you
Cause you could do anything and id be there doing it too
Cause you could climb and id be climbing if you fall id fall to cause I'm always always always with you

I studied you like I breathe in a painting Your eyes let me right in with no hesitation
And while I'm in your soul I wander round. and all I see is me
You got my hand and I got yours I cant help but feel complete

Cause you could go and id still be there walking around
with you
Cause you could climb and id be climbing if you fall id
fall to
Cause I'm always always always with you

And i really don't need to write anything at all I can see it, I can feel it..

Cause you could go and id still be there walking around
with you
Cause you could do anything and id be there doing it
Cause you could climb and id be climbing if you fall id
fall to Cause I'm always always always with you
