Are you happy

Thank god you did it, Yea it's done
It's over but it was fun
And when I look back and reminisce
Ill remember this
That you where too late every time
Your words never did rhyme
The glass was always half empty
Because you never did love me

Too late to see what could have been You got it, now your free so tell me are you Happy happy now are you happy you got out ?
Is it all that you expected or do you cry and just regret it, when you Hear my name
Does it drive you crazyyy ????

Thank god you did it, Yea it's done
It's over but it was fun
And when I look back and reminisce
Ill remember this
That you where too late every time
Your words never did rhyme
The glass was always half empty
Because you never did love me

3 aces 2 7z and an old horse shoe but you just cant get a clue even if one sat right beside you ohh how lucky can you be but you wanted to be free Now your sad, cause you cant, find no one like me and when you

Sleep at night can you feel me kiss your eyes

Thank god you did it, Yea its done
Its over but it was fun
And when I look back and reminisce

Ill remember this
That you where too late every time
Your words never did rhyme
The glass was always half empty
Because you never did love me

The next time you turn to me ill turn the other way Cause I don't wanna see your face and I don't wanna hear you say That you made a big mistake but now you gotta pay cause im
Over it im over it!!!!

Repeat Chorus
Thank god you did it, Yea its done
Its over but it was fun
And when I look back and reminisce
Ill remember this
That you where too late your just to late yea you where to late
your just to late
