Verse 1:

I'm afraid to close my eyes
Coz' I might think of you
I'm afraid to open them
Coz' I might see you

Bridge:

It's hard, it hurts
That you're with someone else
It's hard, it really hurts

Chorus:

I like to run away from you
For I can't bear the pain
Knowing that I don't have you

Verse 2:

I'm afraid to move my lips
Coz' I might speak of you
I'm afraid to listen
Coz' I might hear my heart fall for you

Bridge 2:

It's hard, it hurts
That you're just a dream
That will never come true

(Repeat chorus 2x)

But no matter how hard I try
No matter what I do
The road always leads me back to you.
