Thirty more channels than you need
I could tune in free
Some rabbit ears, some foil in a hanger

Static on channel 13
Cleared long enough for a scene
A jet flew over head and it faded

Couldn't find you any place upon my screen
Bought a satellite, bought a satellite, bought a satellite
Satellite

Dug up from the depths of [unverified], sewer southern flow
A boy I couldn't name, I knew well
[Unverified] still a rambler, useless to my call
You're nowhere to be found on the airwaves

Couldn't find you any place upon my screen
Bought a satellite, bought a satellite, bought a satellite
Satellite

So far from my reach
Close enough to see
I sleep beside the set at night and I can't let you leave

Couldn't find you any place upon my screen
Need to [unverified] and I'm coming for your love over there
Nothing along the [unverified]
Nothing I want to see but your face

Couldn't find you any place upon my screen
Bought a satellite
