Tke it for granted i'll return, from theses days filled with horror
Feeling abandoned in despair i will drown all my sorrow will drown all my Sorrow home, the castle of yesterday calling me lost in a world full of Fear no, i will not surrender to violence home when the ending is near When the ending is near leaving the present to the past, in a time where Belongs endless reminder of what i had but where did the things go wrong
Where the things go wrong

[chorus]
