All you dreams were doomed
To fail
Now your life is deadly pale
You betrayed me just behind my Back

When i sacrificed my time
You became the worst of slime
You were hiding all the cards from me

Now take a good look
You're lonely
I hear you calling
I see you falling
I see you cring
I hear you lying
I hear you, you're screaming
I see you ,you're dreaming
I'm signing our

When we played it seemed so good
All was fine we understood
No one knew
What's gonna happen next

[chorus]

Vanity is in your head
And it seems your brain is dead
Thinking you are some kind
Of genius

[chorus]
