out of the twilight and into the black the words gas been spoken there's no turning back time's running out there's no future for you the moment will come at the time of doom listen to choirs of the ritual killing behold all the

servants of death
you'll feel alone at your honor of pain feel the power rushing through your veins now

now join my ritual, se the candles, burns at the altar of human sarifice listen to the the evil chant , see the blood run red the steel of dagger cuts deep into the cult of dmnation and fear preachers of blasphemy always is near victims of blood has been banished to hell
