C4 In my pocket
And I'm ready to show you what for
You got no room at the end what's in store
There's no one to be in uproar
Family's not gonna like what takes place
But it's gonna win the war

I promise C4 in my pocket
And I'm ready to settle the score

Don't think I'll tell you bout the secret to victory
There's a place, you can read a thing about the history
It ain't who you are and it will remain a mystery
But no ones keeping score
Everyone should know more
Before the powers implore

Oh, Our livelihood is at stake so what
We might have to go without the bigger piece of cake

C4 in my pocket
And I'm ready to show you what for

Give Arm to it's socket
And you'll notice much less when there's more

Don't think I; ll tell you about the secret to victory
It ain't who you are and it will remain a mystery

You can't have it both ways
Not this time

But no ones keeping score
Everyone should know more
Before the powers implore

Oh, Our livelihood is at stake so what
We might have to go without the bigger piece of cake

There's no one keeping score
Everyone should know more

Before the powers implore

Why would we think there could be a winner
When it's just like being the sinner in control

C4 In my Pocket...

C4 In my pocket, and I'm ready to show you what for...
