War is gone at last
The population thought that it would last Foundations of
A new world based on peace is getting trashed
Why can't extremist minds
Realize their story is based on lies
You just don't get it
You can't forget it
Another family dies
Explosion took us by surprise
Religion took away their lives
Reconciliation tastes much better than your lies
Suicidal human bombs
An act of god there's something wrong
50 deaths in so little time
It's all in your mind
