Everyone is watching
I don't want to let you go
Some how nothing here feels right
This life feels like a twisted TV show
That I don't know
I'm not a walking commercial
My life is not a rehearsal
I'm not looking for a perfect answer
You should open up my mind
To things I haven't yet seen in my dreams
You're part of them now
I don't know how
Some might say I don't fit in
I never wanted to
You and I we don't fit in
We never wanted to
Everyone is following
Commercials lead the way
