She makes me crazy
She makes me smile
Gonna let her have my heart
For a while

She's got me dreaming
'bout what could be
Something in her touch
Brings out the best of me

Could this be love
Too soon to say
Maybe just friends, I don't know, either way
I want this to be

CHORUS:
A sacred moment in her life
Guard her heart and treat her right
There may come a day
When she's someone else's wife

If she's not mine to have and hold
May this time we share be known as
A sacred moment

She keeps me praying
Lead me Lord
Don't wanna say and do things I'll be sorry for God show the way
To live out Your love
Strengthen her faith, be a man she can trust
I want this to be

CHORUS

Till the true love of my life takes my name
Whoever's hand I get to hold
My prayer will be the same
