There's no position bowed enough
No posture truly worthy of
Honoring the One above- all things
On my knees is not that low
I still have a ways to go
To revere Who holds and knows- all things

Chorus

My Heart Lies down on Holy Ground
Don't want to speak
I'm hushed, beholding
Holy, Awesome, Glorious One
Whose face is brighter than the sun
Creator, Who has greatly done
All Things

I long for worship that is true

A spirit yielded, humble, too
Unbridled love for You Who's made- all things

Chorus

Above the earth, above the sky
Above what's seen with human eyes
Above what's now and what has been
You'll be above when time ends

Don't want to speak
I'm hushed, beholding
Holy, Awesome, Glorious One
Whose face is brighter than the sun
Who was and is and is to come
Creator, Who has greatly done
All Things
