Come

Bring all of your burdens
Your fear of what's uncertain
Come and lay it down

Come

There's a world that's broken
But promises were spoken
But we don't come alone

Pray

Pray that we will understand
That love is calling, take a stand
Come and take the Father's hand

Chorus

Come, we can break the walls down
And use our hands to reach out
Shine the light into the dark
Come, still the war that's raging
He heals the aching heart
There is a world that waits for us

Come

Go

Feed the man whose hungry
Hold the child whose lonely
Find the lost and lead him home

Trust

Pray that we will learn to trust
With every breath You've given us
Father teach us how to love

Chorus

We've gotta love Him
We've gotta love others
Show another beggar where we found bread
We should never be afraid
Never forget what He said

I'll be with you till the end

Chorus
