Resurrection Corpse
"Bring Religion Down"

They're living in a fairytale.
They're praying to a god damn God!

They will never be heard.
They will never get an answer.

Why can't they see it's enslaving the weak?
Why can't they see it's killing us all?
All that it does is making them do their biddings.
All that it does is making them kill each other.

Those who are with me, listen to what I have to say.
Come on, we must unite to bring it down.
Come on, we must rise up to bring it down.
To bring it down, to bring it down we must tell them.
To bring it down, to bring it down will make them see.

Are they that weak to let them be controlled?
Are they that weak to not question their beliefs?
The more you question it, the more you see all the lies.
The more you see it, the more you will be against it.

Those who are with me, listen to what I have to say.
Come on, we must unite to bring it down.
Come on, we must rise up to bring it down.
To bring it down, to bring it down we must tell them.
To bring it down, to bring it down will make them see.

Now for all the slaves of religion we have one thing to say.

We damn you all. We fuck your god. We damn you all.
We fuck your god.

Are they that blind to not see the insanity?
Are they that blind to not see the lies they told?
They must open their eyes and see that nothing is at it seems.
They must open their eyes and see that it's all in the name of greed.

Those who are with me, listen to what I have to say.

Come on, we must unite to bring it down.
Come on, we must rise up to bring it down.
To bring it down, to bring it down we must tell them.
To bring it down, to bring it down will make them see.

We damn them all and fuck their god. We're rising up to bring it down.
