Is it my time?
Is it my time to die?
Is it my time to be no more?

I will be gone.
I will be dead.
I will be buried.
I will be a memory.

I cannot die.
This cannot be for real.
Not right now.
Why?

The breath in my lungs is harder and harder.
The blood in my veins is slower and slower.
The beat of my heart is lower and lower.

I cannot die, I can't expire.
I will not take my last breath.
I will not die, I won't expire.
I will not dig my own grave.

I want to live.
This cannot be for real.
Not right now.
Why?

I must fight for my life harder and harder.
I must live for a bit longer and longer.
I must make it for me and the others.

Here comes my last breath.
I'll never take it.
Death will not get me.

I cannot die, I can't expire.
I will not take my last breath.
I will not die, I won't expire.
I will not dig my own grave.
