Just pass the torch and say thanks
You had your time
But it's gone now, you can't pick up the pace
It sickens me to see your inability
Pull the cord out, end your misery
Stick a fork in you, boo-ya
Almost done with your run
Well you had your fun
Now it's time to step down and bow out gracefully
And leave a place for me

Live it up, love it up, time is up now give it up
Live it up, love it up, time is up now give it up
Live it up, love it up, time is up now give it up
Time is up now give it up
Used to be?
Who gives a fuck

You claim to fame is all done and lame
And now the same as every lamebrain today
I can't stand it anymore, look at you
You're all used, abused, confused
And delusional
How's the air up there on your pedistal
You sit babbling on about your bullshit
Convinced yourself you're never coming down
But now take a look around
Now you're just the usual

Ugly motherfucker
