picture of you is all that i see, all that i got is this pale memory been lonely to long, keep going back im telling you know lead me on to your like the wind you follow the tide out of my reach, out of my sight back in time when we were in school you were the queen and i was the fool

what have you done, you're gone gone gone i loved you so don't go go go, go away from me if i knew that love turned to hate i wouldn't be blind i'd still have my faith see you're face in neon lights as i walk through the shadows of the night

i loved you so don't go go go, go away from me, yeah i see you're picture everywhere i turn, i get that feeling everytime i see your face i'm about to lay my hand down honey cause i miss you so i hear your voice and i can sense your here, i close my eyes and i see you right there to young to go, to young to know, ooh now what have you done, you're gone gone gone

i loved you so don't go go go, go away from me

like the wind you follow the tide, you out of my reach, out of my sight
