'we' has just been reduced to 'me'. guess that's how it has to be
But i don't really mind cos all i wanted to do was fuck around
She seems disgusted by my plea, bring her best friend and make it three
And it's all for the fun, cos all i wanted to do was fuck
And the way she looks when she looks at me,
We have this thing
I make half of the recipe, rip strips off the enemy Suits me down to the ground, yeah all i wanted to do was fuck around She puts hooks in the love machine, plays sinking the pink
And all i want to is fuck, all i want to do is fuck, all i want to do is...
Oh, the way she looks when she looks at me, we got no serious future together.
I like sleeping, i like eating. i like food and i like beds.
Whos bad?
I like the music here, i like the band, man!
