that's right
that's right

i got a band and a women too i got a plan and a focussed view and that's cool for twenty one that's cool for twenty one

that's cool for anyone and i've already stayed for too long but i will only break your heart, when i go when i go

when i go

hold tight
hold tight

i'm just a kid with a heavy load and rock and roll is a rocky road but that's cool for twenty one a long list of goals achieved and tall tales to tell my son and that is cool for twenty one yeah, that's cool for anyone but i don't drive and i don't pay no board, and this will only make it hard when i go, when i go, when i go

oh, oh
so i'm staying home, yeah cause to my neighbours i'm fucking famous

my mother says she loves me, she tells me i'm not ugly, she thinks the whole world of me, she thinks i'm superman, my mother doesn't understand why i'm always angry i know she doesn't deserve it but she's just first in line

i don't respect myself, cause i can't respect myself,
and i don't respect myself,
cause i can't respect myself,

and yeah, i heard every word you said, oh..., and your ideas, they all make sense but i reject them, well, how can i hope to earn your respect?, oh..., when i don't respect myself, i don't respect myself,
when i don't respect myself, i don't respect myself,

no!
