I'm the last man standing, oh shit im all alone take your time, and you will find your shine, i'll figure out whats with mine, just dont leave me behind

oh, its alright
yeah its all alright
and its alright
yeah its all all

when your feeling insignifagant, again and the motion picture camera pans out on you, just to show you have small you are,
and the grand scheme of the universe, well i cant think of anything much worse take your time, and you will find

your shine, i'll figure out
whats with mine, just dont leave
me behind

oh, its alright
yeah its all alright
and its alright
yeah its all alright x2 i, remember when we used to be happy as slaves now im not sure how i should behave maybe, i shouldnt be calling you baby anymore

why did you have to go and have to get sick of this?
could you really shut your mouth about this?
are you gonna walk out on this?
are you giving up on,
our love it could surely destroy the earth around us and with it, our megnetic minds, collaide when your feet get knocked out from under you, and the roar of the crowd is way to loud screaming, 'stay down, stay down, stay down' stay strong, (wipe the sweat from your brow) stand tall (before your no good at all)

Chorus

Maybe we're just low on gasoline we use to be such a good machine

why did you have to go and get sick of this?
could you really shut your mouth about this?

our love could surely destroy the earth around us and with it, (our megnetic minds collide) our love (our love) could surely destroy x5 the earth
