Will you ever grow up and accept the facts;
Worthless is this game you devote yourself to

Will you ever find the strength to accept this love Take this new life; and let it become your purpose

Can you feel this? The power of the truth will set you free
If you realize the meaning of the choice that you must make

You aren't fooling anyone with your charade
You will only hurt yourself none else to blame.

You think you're different than everyone else, what separates you
From all the people that live like hell. You're not so different are you?

What makes you so different? Tell me what makes you so different?

You only have one chance to make a change. What will you do?
To turn around from this path that you take. Then He will save you

You aren't fooling anyone with your charade
You will only hurt yourself if you don't change

Will you take this? And move on from your past This is the only thing that has the power to make you free
