Skeletons on my wall screams of terror and demon dolls wear a mask to hide ourselves try to forget that lives a living hell

Everyday is halloween everyday is halloween everyday is halloween for me and you everyday is halloween everyday is halloween everyday is halloween for me and you

The devil calls and roams through the night don't be scared babe don't you fright I'm a monster from deep from within mother told me that I'm not the one that sins

Everyday is halloween everyday is halloween everyday
is halloween for me and you everyday is halloween everyday is halloween everyday is halloween for me and you

For you

For you

For you

I will be laughed at and no one would care when your in hell I will see you there I'm the king the king of the beasts

Cause you know that it's halloween

Everyday is halloween

Everyday is halloween

Everyday is halloween for me and you

Everyday is halloween

Everyday is halloween for me and you

For you

For you

For you
