All I wanted was you
All I need was for you to look up and see the man I was trying to be
I bought you a diamond ring
Roses and all of your favourite things
But he just to stay and you thought my heart and soul
Was locked away

I listened to James Blunt
I listened to Daniel Powter
I listened to Jet
I listend to Maroon 5
But never could I find what I found in you

Cos your on my mind
Everyday like chasing my run down the cliff
I'll jump Mt.Everest just to get you

All I wanted was you
All I wanted to do was love you
Give you everything you want to make you happy
I married you and had a child
It wasn't mine but you said it was and you lied
But I forgave you and then you ran away and hide

Cos your on my mind
Everyday like chasing my run down the cliff
I'll jump Mt.Everest just to get you

Cos your on my mind
Everyday like chasing my run down the cliff
I'll jump Mt.Everest just to get you
