"Color A Mythical Beast"

On the first day of first grade
We were both held in from recess
'Cause we were both writing
Profanity on our desks
We wrote bleep
And blank

Our punishment was coloring unicorns
And that's when we became best friends
But equally as important
We never defaced public property again

So if you have a child who's writing obscene graffiti
Give him a picture of a Mythical Beast
And he
Will cease
To write profanity
Don't write profanity

Just color a Mythical Beast!
