I don't feel comfortable in the emperor's new clothes
I talked of ecstasy you said 'I'll have one of those'
You wouldn't listen and I wouldn't change my mind,
I'll be alright you'll be fine

Something's wrong, there's something wrong,
There's something, don't you see
There's nothing wrong, there's nothing wrong,
Nothing's wrong with me

I talked of politics you were easily led,
Even if I know nothing about any government
I wouldn't listen and you wouldn't change your mind
I'll be alright you'll be fine

Something wrong, there's something wrong,
There's something, don't you see
There's nothing wrong, there's nothing wrong,
Nothing's wrong with me

You never noticed when all around has turned to shit
It doesn't bother you a bit

Something wrong, there's something wrong,
There's something, don't you see
There's nothing wrong, there's nothing wrong,
Nothing's wrong with me
