"Lead Me"

I will walk these streets alone
On this story i've been told
I know what people say
I've watched it growing old
I'm bitter and I'm cold
I will always understand
When you take me by the hand
Words are mystery
But everything I know
Is never let it go
Won't someone lead me
Won't someone take me
Won't someone feed me
It's lonely as I call
Moving on again
A little less to spend
I know there's more to me
I try to make it real
I'm living what I feel
When I'm sinking
I sell my fortune in
Find a way out
I pawn my soul again
